

Special Arrangement for Membership Applications

(only for applications received by the HKAEP from 31 October 2019 to 31 December 2020)

In order to encourage more qualified educational psychologists to register with the HKAEP and handle a potentially large number of applications in the first year, the HKAEP will adopt a special arrangement to simplify the application procedure for the period from 31 October 2019 to 31 December 2020. During this application period, applicants only have to submit the documents as listed in the checklist below for initial processing. The HKAEP may either endorse the application if the submitted documents are considered adequate to support the membership requirements or contact the applicant for full information and/or documentation as specified on the application form.

Checklist of submission requirements for applicants who submit the application by 31 December 2020

Please make sure that you have included the following documents with your application. Failure to do so will result in your application being treated as incomplete application. This checklist MUST be completed and attached to the front of the application form.

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

Guidance Note

1. HKAEP Membership Eligibility

Applicants who meet all the following criteria are considered to be eligible for HKAEP membership:

- (i) hold an undergraduate degree in Psychology or its equivalence from an institution recognized by the Professional Council and covering no less than eight courses in different areas of psychology as listed out by the Professional Council; and
- (ii) hold a Master's or Doctoral degree in educational/school psychology acceptable to the Professional Council.

(For details of the membership requirements, please refer to the Educational and Training Requirements)

2. Application Form

A membership application form can be downloaded from the HKAEP website at <https://www.hkaep.org.hk/application-for-registration/>. Please complete and sign the application form (page 5 to page 11) and submit the signed original form by mail.

3. Statement of Purposes

A statement of purposes in relation to personal data collected is attached to the application form in Appendix 1.

4. Application Fee

4.1 The non-refundable application fee for membership is HK$500 for each initial application. A cheque payment of HK$500 should be payable to “Hong Kong Association of Educational Psychologists Limited”. Please print your name on the back of the cheque in a clear and legible manner. Post-dated cheques will not be accepted.

4.2 Please send the cheque together with the signed application form to the HKAEP. Your application will not be processed unless you have made the requisite payment.

4.3 Those whose names have been removed from the Register of the HKAEP due to failure to renew their registration before expiry or following a disciplinary order must re-apply for membership and pay the application fee for re-application.

Note: In order to achieve administrative efficiency in processing applications, applicants who submit their applications from 31 October 2019 to 31 December 2020 will enjoy a waiver of the application fee.

Hong Kong Association of Educational Psychologists Limited (HKAEP)

5. Registration Fee

The annual registration fee is HK$1,500. The fee will be charged once the membership application is approved by the Registration Committee. The approved applicant is considered an official HKAEP member and will be issued a Registration Certificate after a cheque payment of HK$1,500 payable to “Hong Kong Association of Educational Psychologists Limited” is received by the HKAEP within 2 months of the acceptance notification being sent to the applicant. The acceptance expires after the payment window. The cheque will be returned to the applicant if the application is rejected.

6. Declaration on the Application Form

Apart from the education and training requirements as stipulated in paragraph 1, applicants are required to meet an established set of Standards for Registrants. Please refer to the document “Membership Registration Policy” for details. The completed application form should include the followings:

8. Application Processing Times

Applicants should complete all parts of the “Membership Application Form.” Applications will not be processed unless all of the required documents and information are provided to the HKAEP. If applicants provide sufficient documents and information to the HKAEP, the normal processing period for the membership application is approximately 4 months. The HKAEP will inform the result of the application in writing. If applicants do not submit all the documents or information required by the HKAEP within 6 months from the date of HKAEP’s written request, the HKAEP will destroy the application and supporting documents. The applicants will have to re-apply by re-submitting the application and required documents.

9. Renewal of Registration

For membership status activated on or before 31st August, the membership is due for renewal on 31st December in the same year and each following year. Registration will expire on 31st December every year including those initially “grandfathered in”.

For membership status activated on or after 1st September, the membership is due for renewal on 31st December in the next year and each subsequent year.

Registrants are at liberty to apply for renewal of registration or not. Applicants must fulfil all of the requirements stipulated in paragraph 6 and submit the renewal application form together with required supporting documents and a cheque payment of HK$1,500 payable to “Hong Kong Association of Educational Psychologists Limited”. Renewal applications will not be approved unless the required payment is received.

Appendix 1: HKAEP – Statement of Purposes

In compliance with the Personal Data (Privacy Ordinance), the Hong Kong Association of Educational Psychologists Limited (HKAEP) would like to inform applicants and members of the following:

1. The personal data provided by the applicants and Members to the Hong Kong Association of Educational Psychologists Limited are to be used for the following purposes:
 - (i) To process applications for membership;
 - (ii) To compile statistics;
 - (iii) To prepare, maintain and publish the register;
 - (iv) To process enquires or complaints;
 - (v) To despatch correspondence, news, and materials including information on application, reminders for renewal of registration, meetings or promotion of professional activities, prepared by the Hong Kong Association of Educational Psychologists; and
 - (vi) Any other legitimate purpose.
2. The provision of personal data is voluntary. However, the application for HKAEP membership may not be processed if applicants do not provide sufficient information.
3. On a permanent basis, the HKAEP holds personal data of its current and past members. In order for the HKAEP to process all applications for membership or for changes in membership in accordance with the Regulations of the HKAEP, it is necessary for the applicant to supply the HKAEP with personal data.
4. The information requested in the application form is needed for the identification of the person and her/his educational and professional qualifications. The information is retained, so that in the case of later disputes, the qualifications forming the basis for the membership can be ascertained.
5. The data held by the HKAEP relating to applicants and to Members will be kept confidential, but
 - (i) The full names (Chinese and English) and registration numbers of Members will be posted in the Register of the HKAEP on the HKAEP website (<https://www.hkaep.org.hk/list-of-registrants/>) and provided in printed copies upon request to the HKAEP. The main purpose of publishing such information is to protect the public by maintaining a public register of people who are Educational Psychologists meeting the professional standards set by HKAEP to practice the profession in Hong Kong; and
 - (ii) The HKAEP may provide such information to:
 - (1) Any person under the duty of confidentiality to the HKAEP, that is to staff members of the HKAEP, to the members of the HKAEP Board of Professional Council “the Council”) and its Standing Committee, and to the agents/third party service providers appointed by the Council on a need to know basis, and
 - (2) Any third party holding a court order for the disclosure of the information, and
 - (3) Any third party where the members have consented to such disclosure or where such disclosure is allowed under the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance.

Hong Kong Association of Educational Psychologists Limited (HKAEP)

6. The HKAEP does not hold any personal data of persons whose applications for membership have been rejected by the Council on the recommendation of the Registration Committee. The application forms and all supporting documents will be destroyed six months after the applicant has been informed of the rejection. Thereafter the HKAEP only retains minutes to say that an application from a person of such a name has been rejected.
7. Under the Ordinance:
 - (i) Any individual has the right to check whether the HKAEP holds data about him or her, and the right of access to such data,
 - (ii) Any Member has the right to require the HKAEP to correct data relating to him or her, which are shown to be inaccurate,
 - (iii) Any Member has the right to ascertain the HKAEP's policy and practice in relation to personal data and to be informed of the kind of personal data held by the HKAEP.
8. In accordance with the terms of the Ordinance, the HKAEP has the right to charge a reasonable fee for the processing of any requests for access to personal data.
9. Requests for access to data or correction of data or for information regarding policies and practices of data should be made in writing to the Secretary of the HKAEP, at the HKAEP's official address specified in <https://www.hkaep.org.hk/contact-us/>.
10. You are advised to keep a copy of this completed form for reference.
